

Part B Insider (Multispecialty) Coding Alert

Medicare Should Put High-Cost Doctors Under Lens, GAO Says

Doctors with the highest number of expensive patients were also the ones most likely to practice medicine inefficiently, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) said in a new report (GAO-07-307). Medicare should single out these big-spending doctors for education or audits, the GAO urged.