Hospice News: Hospice Provider Expands Post-Acute Presence

Pensacola, Fla.-based post-acute company Covenant Care has acquired Medicare-certified home health agency Peoples Home Health in the same city for undisclosed terms, Covenant says in a release. The company recently rebranded from Covenant Hospice to Covenant Care and is becoming "an integrated, comprehensive post-acute provider," CEO Jeff Mislevy says in the release. Covenant employs more than 700 staff and serves about 7,000 patients annually, it says.
