Hospice News: Turn To This MAC Resource For Education

Have you missed out on helpful educational sessions from your Medicare contractor due to a busy schedule? Now you can remedy the problem at your convenience.

Home care providers served by HHH MAC CGS now can register to replay recent educational sessions, the MAC tells providers. An example of conferences available for replay is "Hospice 101: The Medicare Hospice Benefit."

Instructions on replaying the sessions is at www.cgsmedicare.com/hhh/education/Education.html -- scroll down to the "Replay Past Webinars and Teleconferences" section. Replays will remain available for about 30 days, CGS notes.
