Hospice News: You Have Extra Time To Use Low Volume Appeals Option

If you missed the Low Volume Appeals filing deadline, you can still take advantage of the option. "The deadline to submit an expression of interest (EOI) for the Low Volume Appeals (LVA) Initiative is being extended to June 8, 2018," CMS says on its LVA Initiative website. "Appellants with either an odd or an even NPI, that meet the eligibility criteria, should submit an EOI between April 12, 2018 and June 8, 2018."

Providers that missed the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services' recent call about the new Low-Volume Appeals option can check out a recording, transcript, and other materials from the call at www.cms.gov/Outreach-and-Education/Outreach/NPC/National-Provider-Calls-and-Events-Items/2018-02-13-Appeals-Settlement.html. More LVA information, including an EOI form, is at <http://go.cms.gov/LVA>.
