Reader Question: Here's How To Give CMS Your Ideas On Reducing Burden

Do you wish you were seeing more benefit from Medicare's Patients Over Paperwork initiative to reduce regulatory burden? The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services "is working to clarify, simplify or eliminate confusing and unnecessary documentation requirements," CMS says in its latest PoP newsletter. "We continue to solicit suggestions for improvement from internal and external stakeholders."

You can give CMS your two cents via email at ReducingProviderBurden@cms.hhs.gov, the agency says in the newsletter at www.cms.gov/Outreachand-Education/Outreach/Partnerships/Downloads/July2018Newsletter.pdf.
