Inservice Education: Plan Ahead To Meet Staff Education Needs

Get 10% off your next audioconference

Three upcoming Eli-sponsored audioconferences will educate, inform and encourage.

1. You Bought The Monitors ... Now What? Successfully Implement Telehealth and Keep Your Staff Motivated, on May 23 at 1:00 p.m. ET, presented by Lynda Laff. She promises to show you how to stop your staff from spending precious time looking for patient information and driving to make in-home visits when they can instead have real-time clinical information and educational tools at their fingertips.

2. Dementia 101: Dispelling The Myths of Alzheimer's Disease, with Susan Gilster, on May 29 at 1:00 p.m. ET. Gilster will discuss how Alzheimer's disease (AD) differs from dementia, risk factors for developing AD and dementia, mechanisms for diagnosing AD and dementia, and some surprising new techniques that can improve quality of life for residents with Alzheimer's.

3. Dashboard Reporting 101, with Mark Sharp, on May 30 at 1:00 p.m. ET. Sharp will show how dashboard reports can help fine-tune your business now so you don't risk getting bogged down in volumes of data.

Bonus: To register, call 1-800-508-2582. Mention code 10%OFFAUDIO for 10 percent off the cost of your audio conference.
