

MDS Alert

Clip 'N Save: Track Fall-Related Injuries With This Tool

Providers can use the following format to track residents' falls and update the plan of care.  * Injury Codes  0 = None (no injury)  1 = Minor - no Tx required (bumps, bruises)  2 = Moderate (requires some interventions and/or physician order but not physician intervention, such as abrasions, skin tears, lacerations, treated in-house or X-ray that was negative)  3 = Severe (requires intervention and physician input and/or intervention, e.g., fracture, sprain, concussion, subdural hematoma, sutures, physician office visits, trip to emergency room and/or hospitalization)  Resident's Name  Medical Record #  Source: Joanne Rader, RN, MN, FAAN. Used by permission.
<pre>0 = None (no injury)  1 = Minor - no Tx required (bumps, bruises)  2 = Moderate (requires some interventions and/or physician order but not physician intervention, such as abrasions, skin tears, lacerations, treated in-house or X-ray that was negative)  3 = Severe (requires intervention and physician input and/or intervention, e.g., fracture, sprain, concussion, subdural hematoma, sutures, physician office visits, trip to emergency room and/or hospitalization)  Resident's Name</pre>	Providers can use the following format to track residents' falls and update the plan of care.
1 = Minor - no Tx required (bumps, bruises)  2 = Moderate (requires some interventions and/or physician order but not physician intervention, such as abrasions, skin tears, lacerations, treated in-house or X-ray that was negative)  3 = Severe (requires intervention and physician input and/or intervention, e.g., fracture, sprain, concussion, subdural hematoma, sutures, physician office visits, trip to emergency room and/or hospitalization)  Resident's Name  Medical Record #	* Injury Codes
2 = Moderate (requires some interventions and/or physician order but not physician intervention, such as abrasions, skin tears, lacerations, treated in-house or X-ray that was negative)  3 = Severe (requires intervention and physician input and/or intervention, e.g., fracture, sprain, concussion, subdural hematoma, sutures, physician office visits, trip to emergency room and/or hospitalization)  Resident's Name  Medical Record #	0 = None (no injury)
tears, lacerations, treated in-house or X-ray that was negative)  3 = Severe (requires intervention and physician input and/or intervention, e.g., fracture, sprain, concussion, subdural hematoma, sutures, physician office visits, trip to emergency room and/or hospitalization)  Resident's Name  Medical Record #	1 = Minor - no Tx required (bumps, bruises) hematoma, sutures, physician office visits, trip to emergency room and/or hospitalization)  Resident's Name  Medical Record #
Medical Record #
	Resident's Name
Source: Joanne Rader, RN, MN, FAAN. Used by permission.	Medical Record #
	Source: Joanne Rader, RN, MN, FAAN. Used by permission.
×	×