Education: Get Training On Industry Outlook, Diabetes Coding And More

Check out Eli audioconferences on Homebound Status and other topics.

You can receive vital information on these topics from the comfort of your own office:

- The Move from Facilities to Home: Is it All Good News for Home Health? Wed. April 6, 1 p.m. ET. The growing recognition that patients prefer to be at home has led to a growth in alternatives such as home and community based waiver services. You may assume that this is all good news for the industry, but that may not be such a safe assumption. Join attorney Robert Markette Jr. to identify what's coming, and what you need to prepare for. Go to www.audioeducator.com/conferenceconferencemove-from-facilities-to-home-care-060411 or call 1-866-458-2965.
- Diabetes Coding Essentials for Home Health -- What You Need for Accurate Reimbursement. Thurs. April 14, 11 a.m. ET. Reimbursement errors are incredibly common when it comes to coding diabetes mellitus. Worried about greater case mix points? NRS points? Applicable manifestation rules? Help is here from home care coding specialist Trish Twombly. Go to www.audioeducator.com/conferenceconference-diabetes-coding-essentialshomehealth-140411 or call 1-866-458-2965.
- How to Clearly Establish Homebound Status and Guarantee Medicare Coverage. Wed. April 20, 1 p.m. ET. In this era of increased home health service scrutiny, you can't afford to miss a single point of documentation. Expert Judy Adams will review the definitions and conditions that establish homebound status -- in detail -- and its impact on home health coverage.
