

OASIS Alert

Quality Improvement: Four Home Health Compare Measures Creep Upward

Acute care hospitalization stays stuck for three years now.

Don't fall behind the rising national average on publicly reported outcome measures.

Latest results show agencies' focus on dyspnea, medication management, bathing and ambulation; all these measures have improved twice in the last year. The September update covers data from June 2005 through May 2006. This chart includes updated and previous results.

